

ENFECT

Meaning: ENFECT (verb): To contaminate or transmit a disease to living organisms.

1. The scientist feared that the new virus could quickly infect a large population.
2. During the rainy season, the stagnant water can easily infect nearby crops with disease.
3. He was determined to find a way to prevent the bacteria from infecting the wound.
4. The documentary highlighted how pollution can infect marine ecosystems with harmful chemicals.
5. Traveling to certain regions can expose tourists to diseases that may infect them without warning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enfect>