

ENFORCEIBLE

Meaning: Enforceable: capable of being upheld or executed in a legal context, typically referring to agreements or contracts that can be imposed by law.

1. The contract included several clauses that were enforceable under state law.
2. In order for an agreement to be enforceable, it must be clear and specific.
3. The judge ruled that the terms of the settlement were not enforceable due to lack of consideration.
4. Many people are unaware that verbal agreements can sometimes be enforceable in court.
5. Legal experts debated whether the new regulations would create enforceable rights for consumers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enforceible>