

ENFOREST

Meaning: Enforest (verb): To plant trees or restore forested areas in order to improve ecological health and biodiversity.

1. The initiative aims to enforest the barren lands to restore ecological balance.
2. Community volunteers gathered to enforest an area devastated by wildfires last summer.
3. To combat climate change, scientists are exploring innovative ways to enforest urban spaces.
4. The government has launched a campaign to enforest regions that have suffered from deforestation.
5. Local schools are partnering with environmental organizations to enforest their neighborhoods through student-led projects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enforest>