

ENFORM

Meaning: To enform means to inform or educate someone about a particular subject or issue.

1. The organization aims to enform its members about the latest developments in renewable energy.
2. Teachers strive to enform students of the importance of critical thinking in their academic pursuits.
3. To enform the community about health issues, the clinic hosted a series of informational workshops.
4. The campaign was designed to enform citizens about their voting rights and the electoral process.
5. Social media can be a powerful tool to enform the public on various social justice issues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enform>