

ENGORGEMENT

Meaning: Engorgement refers to the state of being swollen or filled to excess, often due to an influx of liquid or blood.

1. The engorgement of the river after the heavy rain caused significant flooding in the nearby fields.
2. After a long day of hiking, the engorgement of her feet made it difficult for her to find comfortable shoes.
3. The doctor explained that engorgement in the breast is a common issue for nursing mothers in the early days.
4. The sudden engorgement of the flowers during spring brought vibrant colors to the once-barren landscape.
5. He noticed an engorgement of pride as he accepted the award for his groundbreaking research.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/engorgement>