

ENGULFMENT

Meaning: Engulfment refers to the act of being completely surrounded or overwhelmed by something, often in a destructive or consuming manner.

1. The engulfment of the forest by flames created a scene of utter devastation.
2. Her thoughts were consumed by the engulfment of anxiety as the deadline approached.
3. The sudden engulfment of the city in water left many residents stranded on rooftops.
4. In literature, the engulfment of a character's identity often leads to profound transformations.
5. The movie depicted the engulfment of the island by rising sea levels in a hauntingly beautiful way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/engulfment>