

ENLINK

Meaning: Enlink (verb): to connect or link together different elements or components for improved integration or collaboration.

1. To enlink the various components of the project, we held a series of collaborative meetings.
2. The new software aims to enlink different data sources for more efficient analysis.
3. She proposed a method to enlink the community and local businesses in a meaningful way.
4. It is essential to enlink these two systems to ensure seamless communication.
5. The artist's work seeks to enlink cultural identities through shared experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enlink>