

ENRAPT

Meaning: ENRAPT (verb): to captivate or hold someone's attention completely, often to the point of being spellbound or entranced.

1. The magician's performance so thoroughly enrapt that the audience sat in captivated silence.
2. As she spoke about her travels, her stories enrapt everyone at the dinner table.
3. The stunning sunset enrapt the onlookers, leaving them speechless.
4. He was enrapt by the melody of the song, forgetting all his worries for a moment.
5. The children's eyes were enrapt by the colorful fireworks lighting up the night sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enrapt>