

ENROCKMENT

Meaning: Enrockment refers to the process of reinforcing a shoreline or riverbank with rock or similar materials to prevent erosion and flooding.

1. Enrockment of the shoreline has become a critical strategy for flood prevention in coastal areas.
2. The engineers proposed an enrockment solution to stabilize the riverbank and protect nearby homes.
3. During the meeting, the benefits of enrockment were discussed as a sustainable method to combat erosion.
4. Local wildlife has adapted to the changes brought about by the enrockment process, creating new habitats.
5. The environmental impact of the enrockment project was carefully assessed to ensure minimal disruption to the ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enrockment>