

ENSCHEDULE

Meaning: ENSCHEDULE (verb): to arrange or plan an event or deadline for a specific time.

1. I need to enschedule our next meeting for Wednesday afternoon.
2. The team decided to enschedule the project deadline to allow for more testing.
3. Can you please enschedule the conference call for next week?
4. To avoid confusion, we should enschedule the event well in advance.
5. They will enschedule the training session based on everyone's availability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enschedule>