

ENSLAVEDNESS

Meaning: Enslavedness refers to the state or condition of being enslaved, characterized by the loss of freedom and autonomy.

1. The concept of enslavedness can profoundly affect one's sense of identity and freedom.
2. Throughout history, the enslavedness of countless individuals has been a stark reminder of humanity's darkest chapters.
3. In literature, the theme of enslavedness often serves as a catalyst for characters' quests for liberation.
4. Philosophers debate the psychological implications of enslavedness on both the individual and society at large.
5. Activists strive to dismantle systems that perpetuate enslavedness in modern contexts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enslavedness>