

ENTICEMENT

Meaning: Enticement is the act of attracting or tempting someone to do something, often by offering a reward or appealing incentive.

1. The prospect of a lavish vacation served as a powerful enticement for her to accept the job offer.
2. He knew that the promise of a bonus would act as an enticement for employees to work harder.
3. The colorful advertisements were designed to create an enticement that would draw customers into the store.
4. Despite the enticement of quick cash, she chose to stay committed to her long-term career goals.
5. The festival's array of food trucks and live music provided an enticement that attracted visitors from all over the city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enticement>