

ENUCLEATING

Meaning: ENUCLEATING: The surgical removal of a mass or organ, particularly involving the careful extraction of a tumor or eye.

1. The surgeon was enucleating the tumor with great precision to minimize damage to surrounding tissue.
2. Enucleating the eye is a complex procedure that requires a skilled ophthalmologist.
3. After enucleating the affected organ, the medical team focused on the patient's recovery.
4. The process of enucleating cells from the tissue sample was crucial for the research study.
5. She explained that enucleating the nucleus from the cell was essential for her experiments in genetics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enucleating>