

ENVENOM

Meaning: To envenom means to contaminate or infuse with venom, typically for the purpose of harming or killing.

1. The scientist worked tirelessly to develop a method to envenom the targeted pests without harming beneficial insects.
2. In a twist of fate, the hero discovered that the villain planned to envenom the city's water supply as part of his nefarious scheme.
3. During the demonstration, the handler accidentally allowed the snake to envenom his glove, showcasing the potency of its venom.
4. The researchers aimed to envenom the vaccine with a small amount of venom to enhance its effectiveness against certain diseases.
5. In the wild, predators often envenom their prey to quickly immobilize them before consuming their meal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/envenom>