

ENVIED

Meaning: ENVIED: felt a desire for someone else's qualities, possessions, or experiences.

1. She envied her friend's carefree lifestyle and the adventures she often shared.
2. Many envied his ability to remain calm under pressure during difficult situations.
3. The artist was envied for her unique talent and the recognition she received.
4. He envied the way she effortlessly made friends wherever she went.
5. Their success was something that many in the community envied, wishing for similar achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/envied>