

ENVOYSHIP

Meaning: Envoyship refers to the position or office of an envoy, typically involving diplomatic responsibilities and representation in international relations.

1. The envoyship to the United Nations was filled with rigorous diplomatic challenges.
2. After years of service, she was appointed to an envoyship that would visit several key nations.
3. His envoyship was crucial in negotiating the peace treaty between the two conflicting countries.
4. The envoyship allowed him to represent his nation on the global stage, fostering international relations.
5. She dedicated her envoyship to addressing climate change issues at the international level.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/envoyship>