

EPAULEMENT

Meaning: Epaulement refers to a projecting structure or earthwork, typically used in fortifications to provide additional support and defense.

1. The ancient fortress was fortified with a robust epaulement, designed to withstand sieges.
2. Architects often incorporate epaulements in their designs to enhance structural integrity.
3. During the restoration, the team focused on preserving the original epaulement to maintain historical accuracy.
4. The military strategy included the use of epaulements to provide defensive positions for troops.
5. Artists depicted the grand epaulement of the castle, showcasing its impressive architectural features.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/epaulement>