

EPIDOTIC

Meaning: Epidotic refers to a mineralogical term describing a group of minerals containing the epidote group, often associated with specific geological conditions, particularly in metamorphic rocks.

1. The geologist explained that epidotic minerals often indicate specific conditions in metamorphic rocks.
2. During her presentation, she highlighted the epidotic composition of the gemstone found in the region.
3. Epidotic properties can significantly influence the overall aesthetic of a rock collection.
4. In the field of geology, the presence of epidotic elements can reveal insights into the history of the Earth's crust.
5. The vibrant green hue of the epidotic crystals attracted attention at the mineral exhibition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/epidotic>