

EPISCOPIZE

Meaning: To episcopize means to place a church or organization under the authority and governance of a bishop.

1. To episcopize a church means to elevate it under the guidance of a bishop.
2. The proposal to episcopize the organization sparked a heated debate among its members.
3. After much deliberation, the committee decided to episcopize the local congregation to strengthen its leadership.
4. She argued that the community would benefit greatly if they chose to episcopize their governance structure.
5. The bishop's plan to episcopize several parishes aimed to improve spiritual oversight in the region.
6. In an effort to unite the factions within the church, the bishop sought to episcopize the various congregations across the region.
7. The theologian argued that to episcopize the community would require a deep understanding of its historical roots and modern challenges.
8. As the new leader began to episcopize the diocese, he emphasized the importance of inclusivity in all church activities.
9. Many felt that to episcopize the church effectively, a fresh approach to leadership was necessary, one that embraced both tradition and innovation.
10. The initiative aimed to episcopize the local parishes, ensuring that each had a bishop to guide them through the complexities of modern faith.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/episcopize>