

EPITAPHIC

Meaning: Epitaphic: relating to or suitable for an epitaph, often conveying a memorial tribute to the deceased.

1. The poet crafted an epitaphic verse that captured the essence of the departed soul.
2. In the graveyard, the epitaphic inscription spoke of love and loss, resonating with all who read it.
3. She found solace in writing epitaphic lines that celebrated the lives of those she had loved.
4. The old tombstone bore an epitaphic tribute that told the story of a courageous life lived.
5. Epitaphic poetry has a unique way of honoring the deceased while reflecting on the fragility of life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/epitaphic>