

EPURATION

Meaning: Epuration is the process of purification or cleansing, particularly in reference to removing impurities or undesirable elements from a system or entity.

1. The epuration of the water supply is essential for public health.
2. After the scandal, the organization underwent a thorough epuration to restore its credibility.
3. The committee focused on the epuration of outdated policies to improve efficiency.
4. In the lab, researchers discussed the epuration process necessary for the experimental samples.
5. Cultural epuration can lead to a more inclusive and representative community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/epuration>