

EQUALIZATION

Meaning: Equalization refers to the process of making things equal or balanced, particularly in the distribution of resources or in adjusting sound frequencies.

1. The equalization of educational resources is essential for fostering equality among students.
2. In audio engineering, equalization is used to adjust the balance between different frequency components of a sound.
3. The government implemented policies aimed at the equalization of wealth to reduce income disparity.
4. Effective equalization in social programs can help bridge the gap between urban and rural communities.
5. The equalization process in economics helps to stabilize markets by ensuring fair competition among businesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/equalization>