

EQUALNESS

Meaning: Equalness refers to the state of being equal, particularly in terms of rights, opportunities, and treatment among individuals or groups.

1. The concept of equalness is central to many discussions about social justice.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of equalness in educational opportunities for all students.
3. The organization strives to promote equalness across different communities and cultures.
4. Equalness in the workplace can lead to a more harmonious and productive environment.
5. Philosophers have long debated the idea of equalness and its implications for society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/equalness>