

EROSIVE

Meaning: Erosive: capable of wearing away or eroding material, often through natural processes or chemical action.

1. The erosive power of the river was evident as it carved deep canyons over centuries.
2. Certain types of acid rain can have an erosive effect on buildings, leading to significant structural damage.
3. The dentist explained how erosive tooth wear could result from excessive consumption of acidic foods and drinks.
4. Erosive processes in geology often shape the landscape, creating unique formations and features.
5. Farmers in the region are concerned about the erosive impact of heavy rainfall on their soil and crops.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/erosive>