

ERUGINOUS

Meaning: Eruginous refers to a green or bluish patina formed on copper or bronze surfaces due to oxidation.

1. The eruginous patina on the statue gave it a unique charm that fascinated the art enthusiasts.
2. During the restoration, the conservators carefully examined the eruginous layers on the ancient coins.
3. The old copper roof had developed an eruginous look, reflecting its age and the passage of time.
4. His collection of antique vases featured several pieces with an eruginous glaze, adding to their aesthetic appeal.
5. In the garden, the weathered fountain showcased an eruginous effect that blended beautifully with the surrounding greenery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eruginous>