

ERYTHEMATOUS

Meaning: Erythematous refers to a condition characterized by redness of the skin, often due to inflammation or irritation.

1. The patient presented with an erythematous rash that covered large areas of her body.
2. Erythematous lesions can often indicate an underlying allergic reaction or infection.
3. The doctor noted the erythematous appearance of the skin surrounding the wound.
4. In some cases, erythematous patches may be accompanied by itching or burning sensations.
5. Treatment options for erythematous conditions often include topical steroids and moisturizers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/erythematous>