

ERYTHRIC

Meaning: Erythric refers to a reddish or rosy color, often used to describe hues or complexions that convey warmth.

1. The artist chose erythric hues to evoke a sense of warmth in the painting.
2. Her erythric complexion highlighted the vibrant colors of her outfit.
3. In botanical studies, the erythric pigment in leaves can indicate health and vitality.
4. The designer incorporated erythric shades into the fabric to create a striking contrast.
5. Erythric characteristics in the mineral samples suggested a unique chemical composition.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/erythric>