

ESCHEVIN

Meaning: Eschevin: a local magistrate or official in medieval times responsible for overseeing legal matters and maintaining order in the community.

1. The eschevin examined the evidence meticulously before making a judgment.
2. In medieval times, the role of the eschevin was crucial for maintaining order in the community.
3. She had always dreamed of becoming an eschevin, drawn to the intricacies of local governance.
4. The eschevin's decision was final and upheld by the council after hours of debate.
5. During the trial, the eschevin demonstrated impartiality and fairness, earning the respect of all present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eschevin>