

ESCRIBED

Meaning: 'Escribed' refers to the act of describing or detailing something in writing, particularly in a vivid or elaborate manner.

1. The ancient manuscript described the rituals of the lost civilization in vivid detail.
2. She meticulously described her travel experiences to inspire others to explore the world.
3. In her lecture, the professor described the complex interactions between different species in the ecosystem.
4. The novel vividly described the protagonist's inner turmoil as she faced her greatest fears.
5. During the meeting, he clearly described the project's objectives and the steps needed to achieve them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/есcribed>