

ESPIER

Meaning: To espier means to observe or watch secretly, often for the purpose of gathering information.

1. The detective decided to espier the suspect's movements to gather more evidence.
2. She trained her binoculars on the other side of the street, eager to espier any unusual activity.
3. In the world of espionage, the ability to espier effectively can mean the difference between success and failure.
4. As a child, he loved to espier the neighbors from his bedroom window, imagining their lives.
5. The journalist sought to espier the truth behind the scandal that had rocked the community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/espier>