

ESTEEMER

Meaning: Esteemer: a person who holds or expresses high regard, respect, or admiration for someone or something.

1. An esteemed artist, known for his innovative techniques, has become a true esteem-er in the world of contemporary art.
2. She always regarded her grandmother as an esteem-er, a figure who inspired self-respect and confidence in everyone around her.
3. Being an esteem-er requires a deep understanding of others and the ability to uplift their spirits.
4. The esteem-er within him motivated him to mentor young athletes, helping them realize their potential.
5. In a society that often undervalues kindness, her role as an esteem-er was both rare and vital for fostering community spirit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/esteemer>