

ESTREPEMENT

Meaning: Estrepement: a deep sense of emotional distress or anguish resulting from separation or estrangement.

1. The sudden estrangement caused a deep sense of estrepement among the family members.
2. Her estrepement was palpable as she watched her childhood home being sold.
3. The estrepement he felt after the breakup lingered long after their last conversation.
4. They discussed the estrepement that often accompanies significant life changes.
5. Despite the estrepement, she found the strength to move forward and embrace new opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/estrepement>