

ETHERIFORM

Meaning: Etheriform: having a light, airy, or gaseous quality, often evoking a sense of ethereality or otherworldliness.

1. The scientist described the unusual compound as etheriform, suggesting it had a gaseous quality.
2. In her artwork, she captured an etheriform landscape that seemed to float between reality and imagination.
3. The etheriform nature of the gas allowed it to diffuse quickly through the air.
4. He spoke of an etheriform essence that connected all living beings in the universe.
5. The experiment revealed that the etheriform state of matter could exist under specific conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/etheriform>