

ETHOLOGIST

Meaning: An ethologist is a scientist who studies animal behavior in natural environments to understand their instincts and social interactions.

1. An ethologist studies animal behavior in natural settings to gain insights into their instincts and social interactions.
2. The findings of the ethologist contributed significantly to our understanding of dolphin communication.
3. During her research, the ethologist observed that certain bird species exhibit complex mating rituals.
4. Ethologists often collaborate with conservationists to ensure that animal behaviors are preserved in their natural habitats.
5. The documentary featured an ethologist who dedicated her life to unraveling the mysteries of wolf packs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ethologist>