EULOGY

Meaning: A eulogy is a speech or tribute delivered in honor of someone who has died, often reflecting on their life and contributions.

1. The heartfelt eulogy delivered at the funeral brought many attendees to tears.
2. She spent hours crafting the perfect eulogy to honor her late grandmother's memory.
3. During the memorial service, friends shared touching stories that felt like a collective eulogy.
4. The eulogy highlighted the deceased's achievements and the impact they had on the community.
5. As the pastor recited the eulogy, the atmosphere in the room became somber yet celebratory.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eulogy