

EUPHONISM

Meaning: Euphonism is the use of pleasant-sounding language to soften the impact of harsh or difficult themes in literature.

1. The poet's use of euphonism transformed harsh realities into lyrical beauty.
2. In literature, euphonism often softens the impact of difficult themes, making them more palatable.
3. When discussing sensitive topics, a euphonism can provide a gentler approach that eases discomfort.
4. Her choice of euphonism in the speech helped to convey compassion and understanding.
5. The editor suggested replacing the blunt phrases with euphonisms to enhance the overall tone of the article.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/euphonism>