

EUPHONIUM

Meaning: Euphonium: a brass musical instrument with a warm, rich tone, commonly used in concert and marching bands, resembling the sound of the human voice.

1. The euphonium produces a warm, rich sound that is often compared to that of the human voice.
2. In the marching band, the euphonium section plays a crucial role in adding depth to the harmonies.
3. She decided to take up the euphonium after hearing its beautiful melodies in a local concert.
4. During the competition, the euphonium soloist captivated the audience with his expressive performance.
5. The music teacher emphasized the importance of breath control for mastering the euphonium.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/euphonium>