

EUPHONIZE

Meaning: EUPHONIZE (verb): To make something sound pleasant or harmonious, often by softening harsh or discordant elements.

1. She tried to euphonize the harsh sounds of the construction site with soft music.
2. The poet aimed to euphonize his verses, ensuring that each line flowed melodically.
3. In an effort to euphonize the speech, the speaker included soothing anecdotes.
4. The composer worked tirelessly to euphonize the dissonant chords in his latest symphony.
5. To euphonize their discussion, they focused on positive outcomes rather than challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/euphonize>