

EVACUANT

Meaning: Evacuant: a substance or agent used to promote the evacuation of contents from the body or to clear an area, especially in medical or emergency contexts.

1. The evacuant used in the medical procedure helped clear the patient's system effectively.
2. During the storm, the city mandated the use of an evacuant to safely clear the area.
3. He took an evacuant before the diagnostic test, following the doctor's instructions carefully.
4. The evacuant's role was crucial in ensuring that harmful substances were removed from the environment.
5. In some cases, an evacuant can be essential for preparing the body for certain surgeries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evacuant>