

EVANGELIC

Meaning: Evangelic refers to a passionate and enthusiastic commitment to spreading the Christian gospel and inspiring others in their faith.

1. The pastor's evangelic fervor inspired many in the congregation to deepen their faith.
2. Her evangelic approach to spreading the message resonated with numerous young adults.
3. The evangelic principles he preached emphasized love, compassion, and forgiveness.
4. In the small town, the evangelic community organized various charity events for the less fortunate.
5. The book explored the impact of evangelic movements on modern society and culture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evangelic>