

EVANGELICALISM

Meaning: Evangelicalism is a Protestant movement characterized by a focus on personal faith, the authority of the Bible, and a commitment to spreading the Christian gospel.

1. Evangelicalism has significantly influenced modern American politics and culture.
2. Many of the principles of evangelicalism emphasize personal faith and the authority of the Bible.
3. The rise of evangelicalism in the 20th century reshaped the landscape of global Christianity.
4. Critics often argue that evangelicalism can sometimes prioritize ideology over compassion.
5. In recent years, the diversity within evangelicalism has become more apparent, with various movements emerging.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evangelicalism>