EVASIVE

Meaning: Evasive: tending to avoid giving direct or clear answers, often to escape responsibility or scrutiny.

1. Her response was so evasive that it left everyone more confused than before.
2. The politician's evasive answers during the press conference raised suspicions among reporters.
3. When questioned about his whereabouts that night, he became increasingly evasive and nervous.
4. She had a talent for being evasive, skillfully avoiding any direct questions about her plans.
5. Despite his evasive demeanor, the detective sensed that he was hiding something important.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evasive