

EVESDROP

Meaning: Eavesdrop (verb): to secretly listen to a conversation without the speakers' knowledge.

1. She tried to eavesdrop on their conversation, hoping to gather some secrets.
2. It was wrong of him to eavesdrop, but he couldn't help his curiosity.
3. The children were caught eavesdropping on the adults discussing the surprise party.
4. Eavesdropping can lead to misunderstandings and broken trust in relationships.
5. He felt guilty for eavesdropping but couldn't resist the intrigue of their whispers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evesdrop>