

EVICTION

Meaning: Eviction is the legal process of removing a tenant from rental property due to failure to comply with lease terms, such as non-payment of rent or violations of rental agreements.

1. The landlord filed for eviction after the tenant failed to pay rent for three consecutive months.
2. After numerous warnings, the family faced eviction from their home due to repeated lease violations.
3. The sudden eviction left them scrambling to find a new place to live in a tight housing market.
4. Legal aid organizations often provide assistance to those facing eviction to help them understand their rights.
5. Despite her best efforts to negotiate, the eviction notice arrived just before the holidays, adding to her stress.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eviction>