

EVITATION

Meaning: Evitation: the act of avoiding or evading a topic or question.

1. Her constant evitation of the topic made it difficult to address the underlying issues.
2. The politician's evitation of direct questions only fueled public skepticism.
3. In his evitation of responsibility, he failed to acknowledge the consequences of his actions.
4. She mastered the art of evitation, skillfully diverting conversations away from uncomfortable subjects.
5. Despite his evitation of confrontation, the tension in the room was palpable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evitation>