

EVOCATION

Meaning: Evocation is the act of bringing thoughts, feelings, or memories to mind, often in a vivid or emotional way.

1. The artist's painting was a powerful evocation of her childhood memories.
2. His speech was an evocation of hope and resilience in challenging times.
3. The novel's rich imagery served as an evocation of the landscape's beauty.
4. The film's soundtrack provided an emotional evocation that resonated with the audience.
5. Through her poetry, she created an evocation of longing and nostalgia.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evocation>