

EVULSION

Meaning: Evulsion refers to the sudden removal or tearing away of a part or structure, often resulting in significant alteration or damage.

1. The sudden evulsion of the landscape during the earthquake left the residents in shock.
2. In the medical emergency, the doctor explained that evulsion of the tissue could lead to severe complications.
3. The artist's work captured the evulsion of emotions that often accompany loss and grief.
4. During the storm, the evulsion of soil from the hillside caused dangerous landslides.
5. The ancient texts described the evulsion of the city from the map after the catastrophic event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/evulsion>