

EWER

Meaning: EWER: A large, often decorative pitcher used for holding and pouring liquids.

1. The ornate ewer sat on the table, reflecting the soft candlelight.
2. She carefully poured water from the ewer into the delicate glass.
3. In the museum, an ancient ewer displayed intricate carvings of mythical creatures.
4. He admired the craftsmanship of the silver ewer, a family heirloom passed down through generations.
5. As the sun set, the shadows danced around the beautifully decorated ewer in the garden.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ewer>