

EXCARNIFICATION

Meaning: Excarnification is the process of the removal of soft tissue from skeletal remains, often occurring in the context of archaeological studies.

1. Excarnification is a crucial process in the study of ancient human remains.
2. The researchers noted that excarnification can significantly alter the appearance of skeletal materials.
3. In forensic anthropology, excarnification might provide insights into the conditions surrounding death.
4. The phenomenon of excarnification often complicates the interpretation of archaeological findings.
5. Excarnification, or the removal of flesh from bones, can occur due to environmental factors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excarnification>