

EXCERPTION

Meaning: Excerption: The act of selecting and extracting a portion of a text for analysis or reference.

1. The author included an excerpt from her novel during the discussion on literary techniques.
2. In the lecture, the professor emphasized the importance of careful excerpting when analyzing texts.
3. For her thesis, she provided a thoughtful excerpt that illustrated her argument effectively.
4. The editor was praised for his skillful excerpting, which captured the essence of the lengthy report.
5. He decided to use an excerpt from an influential philosopher to support his own ideas in the paper.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excerption>